

The National Commercial Bank (NCB) is the Saudi Arabia's largest financial institution. Since its foundation in 1953, people have considered NCB a trusted partner in their professional and personal lives, and a symbol of innovation and leadership. The popular reference to NCB as 'Bank AlAhli' is derived from the Arabic word 'AlAhli' – the 'national' bank, linking NCB and its customers with their nation.

NCB's growth and development over 64 years has mirrored the Kingdom's progress towards modernity and continuous improvement. Today, NCB has a unique bond of trust with its more than 5.4 million customers, meeting their needs through outstanding products, services, and innovative solutions, and harnessing technology to enhance their experience.

NCB defined its vision to be the "Premier Financial Services Group in the Region", and to achieve this, five strategic aspirations have been defined: to be Number One in Revenues and Profit; Best Digital Bank; Best in Customer Service, Employer of Choice". The Bank's success in pursuing these aspirations was reflected in its four consecutive years of outstanding financial results, the recent of which was 2017, where NCB Net Income increased by 5.2% to reach SR 9.80 million.

NCB investments in IT infrastructure and new advanced systems have made a qualitative leap in convenience, service level and customer experience, in addition to quick turnaround of transactions. NCB's number of branches in 2017 reached 400, including 114 branches with ladies sections; and ATMs increased to reach 3,478. In line with its strategic aspiration to be the 'Employer of Choice', the Bank continued to strengthen its ability to attract, develop, and retain Saudi banking talents, Saudization reached 95.3% in 2017.

In 2014, NCB's initial public offering (25% of the Bank's assets) marked the start of a new era, the results of which are now being shared with investors through the Bank's expansion and financing projects across a range of industries.

NCB owns 90.71% of NCB Capital, its investment arm and one of the biggest Shariah compliant asset managers internationally, and owns 67.037% of Turkiye Finans Katilim Bankasi, the leading participation bank in Turkey.
